IACET names Douglas Publications, LLC Authorized CEU Provider

Richmond, VA – The International Association of Continuing Education and Training (IACET) recently approved the Douglas Publications Blended Learning Programs (DP) as an authorized provider of the IACET continuing education unit (CEU).

IACET's Criteria and Guidelines, created in 1968, are at the core of thousands of educational programs worldwide. These are the standards by which hundreds of organizations, regulatory boards and companies measure their educational offerings.

"Douglas Publications has joined with hundreds of other prime providers of continuing education and training in using the World's highest standards for development, presentation and evaluation of learning programs," said Jim Clawson, executive director of IACET. "Participants in Douglas programs can feel confident that they will receive the quality training they expect."

"We are pleased to be an IACET Authorized Provider and to be recognized for our excellence in providing educational training and certification to our customers" says Curtis Wharton, Douglas Publication's Director of Business Development, "We met the high standards set by IACET. This is quite an honor and testament to the value of Douglas Publications' Training Programs."

The mission of the Douglas Publications Blended Learning Programs is to provide our readers and customers with the information needed to run their companies more efficiently and to improve their professional competency by receiving additional quality training and continuing education credits. Topics covered span the safety, human resource, healthcare facility and meeting planning fields, and focus on developing sales, marketing, leadership development and management skills.

The International Association for Continuing Education and Training (www.iacet.org) is a non-profit association dedicated to quality continuing education and training programs. IACET authorizes education providers that meet strict continuing education guidelines created in 1968. IACET certification is the standard learners seek for quality. IACET's Criteria and Guidelines are the core of thousands of educational programs worldwide.
